Love For Children

Former Dallas Cowboy great and FOX Sports commentator Daryl Johnston and wife Diane hosted the 2006 Love For Children Sponsor party in the lush backyard of their enchanting home on Saturday, April 22. Advisory members were in attendance, including KISS FM's Kellie Rasberry, along with many Dallas Cowboy Cheerleader alums, Children's Medical Center at Legacy's Carol Schauer, and of course, the LFC Board. At the soiree, LFC 2006 President Michelle Fraser announced that this year's Vintner's Dinner and Afterglow at CityPlace on September 8 will benefit Children's Medical Center at Legacy in Plano and that Sotherby Homes is supporting the charity as this year's $20,000 Platinum Title Sponsor.

This year's raffle prize was unveiled: $100 gift certificates to 20 of Dallas' top restaurants and a one-year lease of a Porsche Cayman from Boardwalk Porsche and Audi in Plano. Tickets are available for $100 each at love4children.org.

Sotherby's Homes' Danna Wolf, Nicole Evans, Michelle Fraser, Lora Owen, Kim Woodard.

The 3rd Annual Vintner's Dinner

September 8th at 7pm at Cityplace

Benefiting Children's Medical Center Legacy

Acclaimed Host Chefs present a four-course meal expertly paired with Host Winemakers' selected wines. An exciting live auction highlights the dinner, and the "Afterglow" after-party with live entertainment and a silent auction closes the evening.

LFC, Inc. is a purely volunteer, non-profit organization with a commitment to helping children in crisis and making life better for them.
